2009 World Gang Control Strategy Summit of the National Alliance of Gang Investigators Associations

A Gang Control Strategy Summit for the Commander & Chief Executive

The Premier Strategic Planning Forum for Criminal Justice Executives, Command Staff, Prevention Professionals, and Political Leadership

Orlando, Florida, USA

April 27-29, 2009

Hosted by the National Alliance of Gang Investigators Association

 A Commander's & Chief Executive's Leadership Forum ***

October 2008

The National Alliance of Gang Investigators' Associations (NAGIA) provides global leadership in developing and recommending strategies to prevent and control gang crime, administer professional training as well as assist criminal justice professionals and the public in identifying and tracking gangs, gang members and the gang crime around the world.

The purpose of this summit is to provide the Command Staff and Chief Executives a forum where criminal justice and non-criminal justice professionals can discuss current trends and activities related to gangs and gang violence.

There will be individual "tracks" of instruction to accommodate the many disciplines of professionals that are to combat the war on gangs.

What disciplines should attend this summit?

- | | | |
|----------------------|--|---------------------------|
| • Law Enforcement | • Prosecutors | • Mayors |
| • Corrections | • Judges | • State Attorney Generals |
| • Juvenile Justice | • Prevention & Intervention Specialist | • Educators |
| • Probation & Parole | • Legislators | • Military |

This summit will give you a better understanding of the scope of the gang problem and with best practices that are being used to effectively combat this threat.

In addition to the many courses of instruction, there will be facilitated discussion groups in which you can participate that will pertain to the many disciplines that are needed to establish an effective local, state, national and international gang control strategies. Attendees after sharing ideas and participating in the classes and meetings will also receive a Summit Report containing recommendations and discussion topics from this event.

Our goal is to provide you with the information necessary to establish a strategy to reduce your gang activity and increase public safety and the overall quality of life for the citizens of your community.

For additional information on the National Alliance of Gang Investigators' Associations, please visit the NAGIA website address, www.nagia.org.

Summit Objectives

The National Alliance of Gang Investigators' Associations is proud to bring to you the 2009 World Gang Control Strategy Summit.

The NAGIA serves approximately 20,000 members. The Board of Directors and Representatives of the state, regional, and national gang investigators associations that make up NAGIA will be in attendance and available for one-on-one discussions about their specific state and/or regional gang activities.

The 2009 World Gang Control Strategy Summit is being held in the "City Beautiful"; Orlando, Florida. This year's summit will provide some of the best practices pertaining to intelligence, enforcement, suppression, prosecution, prevention, and intervention that when combined will create a global strategy to eliminate gangs and gang activity.

The goal of the National Alliance of Gang Investigators' Associations is to provide the best executive level training, informative gang trend briefings, and productive strategic planning meetings within a location and atmosphere that facilitates other commanders and executives from all disciplines to share experiences, expertise, and gang control strategies.
